Web & App Developer

PROFILE

In my final year of a Bachelor of Science in Information Technology at FG Postgraduate College in Wah Cantt, Pakistan, I am 21-year-old Nayab. In order to complete my academic assignment, I co-developed a fashion app. I have a strong interest in technology and solving problems, and I play chess to hone my strategic thinking. I want to develop my abilities all over the world, and Sabancı University is the best place to do so.
